

HUNTERDON COUNTY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMMISSION

LITERACY & ADULT BASIC EDUCATION PROGRAMS

With one of the highest per capita income levels in the country, Hunterdon County, with a population of 120,500+ people, nonetheless has an estimated 11,000 adult residents with below average reading skills. Some 6,700 residents never completed high school and another 3,600 never went further than the 9th grade. In addition, for more than 7,000 Hunterdon County adult residents, English is their second language.

To assist these county residents and others from surrounding counties, the Educational Services Commission (ESC) provides a comprehensive program of Adult Basic Education that includes GED and ESOL classes.
